Antioch Recreation Asks License to Handle Hard Liquor Instead of Beer

Village Trustees to Study its and National Tea Tea Co. Requests

The village board tabled until its next meeting a request from the Antioch Recreation that it be given a license to sell all kinds of liquors instead of just beer as it is now permitted to do.

In the meantime the trustees will study the matter and get public opinion on it and too, a request from the National Tea Co. that it be permitted to sell beer by the case. Either permit will make necessary the changing of an ordinance which in the case of a tavern-type license limits the number to one for every 300 residents.

The village normally would have but four taverns but when the Naber addition was incorporated the Kelly tavern license was compulsory through law. Under the present law if any of the present tavern keepers give up their license, no new one could be issued.

The proprietors of the bowling alley said that they have been embarrassed in that patrons have had to bring liquor in flasks, and mix their own drinks if they want highballs. They said they would enclose the bar with a glass partition and keep those under age out.

Members of the board said that while appreciating the situation feared that once the standing rule of limitation is broken the plan would get out of hand.

Tavern keepers four years ago agreed to a $500 license fee on the (Continued on Page 10)

The convention ended today.

Allendale Gets $200,000 In William Kidston Will

Officials at the Allendale School for Boys at Lake Villa said they do not as yet have plans for the use of $200,000 left the institution by William H. Kidston who died last November.

The bequest was part of a $10,000,000 estate, $2,000,000 of which went to the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago.

Settlement of the estate probably will take two years.

Fair at Wilmot Opening Today With Big Exhibit, And Much Entertainment

"It looks like a big fair all around," said Secretary Henry Frank, on the eve of the annual Kenosha County fair which opens this evening at Wilmot, Wis.

The biggest machinery exhibit in the history of the fair has been assembled at an estimated value of a half million dollars.

A nice display of cattle and livestock in all sections is presented and the art and flower exhibits are both good, Frank said.

Practically all of the concession space has been filled.

The free acts this year include the Kruse Sisters, acrobats; Poodles Hanneford and Company, four colorful bareback riders; the Four Phillips, a perch act; Charlie, the tramp cyclist; and the Flying Melzoras, a group of sensational aerialists.

Serving as master of ceremonies will be Pat McCaffrie, well known in this area for his wit and charming personality.

The fair will last four days, ending Sunday.

Little League Finishes Season; Giants Lead

Wednesday, August 1, the game between the Sox and Dodgers, was quite heated baseball as it meant the final determination for the second place with a probable three way tie. The Sox finally noosed out the Dodgers in the last of the seventh with a home run by Enis, who sent in Gudgeon ahead of him.

Fred Hawkins Second In All-American Golf Tourney at Tam Links

Former Antioch Citizen To Enter Golf Championship Match This Week

Entered in the world championship starting today at Tam O'Shanter course near Chicago, Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hawkins Sr. of this village, hopes to add other laurels to those he received in winning second place in the All-American pro contest there last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins visited his parents this week between tournaments.

Young Hawkins, who learned his golf at his father's Chain O' Lakes course, received $1,400 prize money in last week's play, losing to Cary Middlecoff of Memphis by just two strokes.

Middlecoff's championship winning brought him $2,500. His score was 274-14 under par for the Tam O'Shanter course.

Among the "greats" who finished far behind Hawkins were Bobby Locke and Sam Snead.

Hawkins played in Middlecoff's three-some. He almost unnerved the Memphis man, who gave up density to play professional golf, by closing the gap to one stroke with brilliant trap recoveries that left him less than four feet for birdie putts.

After progressing to a 33 on the first nine and moving on the last round with an eagle, and a series of long-putt birdies, Hawkins faltered. With one stroke behind he blasted from a trap four feet from the cup on 16 and then missed the putt.

Antioch Battles League Leaders, Wilmot, Hard But Finally Loses 7-5

For the third time this year Antioch gave the league leading Wilmot Legion a terrific battle only to succumb by a 7-5 count. Antioch was leading for 4½ innings only to weaken in the seventh and give Wilmot the runs and the game.

The game was a battle of extra base hits as Antioch came up with four long clouds and Wilmot six. Ed Palenski pounded the longest hit of the day, a line drive four bagger to dead center field. Dick Scott contributed a brace of triples while Ray Bushing helped with a double. For Wilmot Shaden Richards was a homer, triple, and single was the big gun. Wally Skora banged a single, double and triple to help the Wilmot cause. In addition Richter and Medman each collected a three base blow.

Norm Benedict was the winning pitcher and did a very creditable job. Ray Bushing started for Antioch and held the opposition in check for three innings but was nicked for a pair of runs in the fourth, fifth and seventh innings and a lone walk in the sixth. Jack Pregreger took over in the eighth and after leading the bases struck out Molinaro and Richards to escape without injury.

List of Little League Sluggers

By virtue of their victory Sunday, the Giants in the Little League baseball league became league champions. The team sponsored by the Antioch Lumber and Coal Co. was defeated but once in five starts.

The Sox finishing in second place, had the largest number of good batters in the league but lacked the punch at times to win.

Below are listed the top twenty-eight hitters for Antioch's little league season for the year.

Village Gets Windfall Of $1,217.64 Thru Balance in Tax Fund

The village has a windfall of $1,217.64 as a result of a cash balance in the special assessment fund which, according to E. F. Laurin, auditor may be spent as the trustees see fit.

The surplus, according to Laurin, is too small to be divided among the property owners.

With rising costs in municipal government it is probable that the board will find a place for it.

Laurin's audit, presented to the board Tuesday evening, recommended that in the future car tag books be numbered and recorded. Last year 473 village licenses were issued along with a few duplicates for which there were no charges.

The board is looking forward to the time when it can carry out the suggestion of Laurin that it establish a village office. The plan is to place the office in the village hall as soon as the place is vacated by the Rescue squad which is planning to have a building of its own.

Firemen Put Out Blaze At O'Brien Residence; First Call in 2 Months

The fire department had its first call in two months, Sunday when it went to the Roy D. O'Brien residence at the north end of Channel lake in extinguishing a blaze that started from a kerosene hot water heater in the basement.

Damage estimated at $200 was done to some household equipment, the floor joists, and wiring insulation.

A member of the family tried to extinguish the blaze at the start with a pyrene gun, but was unable to do so.

The O'Brien property is owned by Mrs. W. E. Schroeder Sr. Secretary Clarence Shultis said the department's last call was south of the village where lightning struck a building.

High School Addn. Still At Standstill

Although some work is being done on the new addition to the Antioch high school building the steel for the shops has still not arrived, and it seems more doubtful than ever that the building can be put into service this year.

An interview with G. L. Bird, of Ryerson Steel Fabricating, Chicago, indicate that the Tonyan Construction company, contractors for the building had ordered the steel for delivery here on Sept. 1, and that due to conditions of shortage that the Ryerson company would not be able to fabricate and deliver the steel until about Sept. 15. This is at variance with the reports made to the high school board that the steel would be delivered some weeks ago.

Mr. Bird also said that a part of the contract for the steel for the shops had been cancelled in order to place it where delivery might be made sooner.

Enters Plastering Business
Jerry Rockow has resigned as bartender at the Louie and Ed tavern to enter the plastering business. His place has been taken by George Ross Jr. who resigned at the Antioch News where he was employed as a printer.

Oftedahls Leave for Norway to Set up New Frostee Sno Business

Mr. and Mrs. John Oftedahl, 628 Main St., left New York Tuesday on the Stavangerjord for Oslo, Norway where they will direct the establishment of the Frostee Sno Co. of Europe.

By special permission of the State Bank of Norway a display material firm in Oslo was authorized to furnish all traveling expenses including hotel rooms and meals for Mr. Oftedahl so that he could direct the erection of a small plant.

He will receive a 10 per cent royalty in all Frostee Sno products manufactured at this plant and shipped throughout all European countries.

Frostee Sno for display purposes as invented by Mr. Oftedahl and manufactured in Antioch has on many occasions been shipped to foreign countries including far away South Africa, but the transportation costs and duty are so high in material of this nature that repeat orders rarely materialize.

The Norway plant will be able to take advantage of lower rates.

After attending to business matters the Oftedahls will visit around Stavanger where they both have large numbers of close relatives. Although Mr. and Mrs. Oftedahl have never been in the Scandinavian countries, he can speak the language well.

They expect to return early in October.

During their absence Mr. and Mrs. Everett Oftedahl will manage the local business.

Interstate Service for Cardinal Lines Connects With Burlington, Wis.

Bus drivers of the Cardinal lines were informed yesterday that starting tomorrow buses will operate through Antioch to Burlington, Wis., connecting with lines to Madison, Wis. and other points in that state.

At the same time the bus service to Channel lake will be discontinued but through arrangement with Fred Pierce, local taxicab driver, passengers to that point will be taken by taxicab at regular bus rates.

The change ends three and a half years of effort on the part of Cardinal Lines to get an interstate franchise, which will make possible service from central points in Wisconsin and Illinois.

The change was first reported as scheduled for Sept. 1, but yesterday the change was reported as becoming effective immediately so that the lines can take advantage of the summer trade.

Antioch Boys Winners At Lake County Fair Last Week at Wauconda

John Wells, Tom McGreal and Albert Berkiel were among the prize winners at the Lake county fair last week in Wauconda.

Wells had the champion female in the Hereford division of swine, winning the first and second gilt; Berkiel won first gilt and McGreal second in the Yorkshire division.

Berkiel also won third in the single barrow, market class.

The fair was a good one and well attended this year, but rain Sunday spoiled the close.

Fireworks was an added attraction this year.

Village to Improve Its Sewage Disposal Plant At State's Suggestion

May Hire Man To Run Plant, Repair, Read Water Meters

The State Sanitary Water board informed the village this week that its sewage treatment plant is working reasonably satisfactory, but suggested improvements one of which will be acted upon.

The report on the investigation by C. W. Klassen, technical secretary following the survey by Engineer J. J. Fast advises the village to install an additional sludge bed, and drawing area.

Fast said that the large amount of surface water emptied into the sewer, probably through downspouts or other surface drainage, overloads the system during heavy rains with the result that the sewage carries through without treatment.

The board advised the village to get laboratory equipment and make daily control tests, and to obtain a dosage counter to measure the flow through the plant.

It suggested the purchase of a dual purpose 75 gun pump for use during periods when the 125 gun pump now used is overloaded.

Trustee Arthur Hawkins, chairman of the sewer and water committee advised the immediate installation of a new sludge bed and other members of the board and President James McMillen concurred in the idea. Hawkins' committee will investigate the location of the new bed at once.

Water Commissioner Walter I. Scott estimated the cost as not exceeding $1,500.

Other suggestions of the state board were not acted upon at this time.

Discussion of the sewage problem led to the statement by President McMillen that an additional employee should be hired to take care of the sewage treatment plant, read and repair meters. He said that Walter Scott is overloaded in his many duties including that of police chief, and said that the extra man would save the village much of his salary through the repair of water meters, nearly 40 of which are now in bad condition with much loss in revenue to the village.

Some accounts can only be estimated because of the lack of accurate meters, and other meters are so faded and rusty that the numbers cannot be read, Scott said.

Antioch Recreation To Open League Play, Provides Improvements

The Antioch Recreation will open for league play next week following extensive improvements.

The management announced that new semi-automatic racks have been installed in the six lanes at a cost of $4,000. The racks are of the B-10 Brunswick make.

At an additional expense of $1,000 the owners have laid new floors and made other improvements.

League bowling will start Tuesday with the Ladies Handicap league. The business men's group will bowl on Wednesday and Thursday and the Tavern league on Mondays starting one week from Monday.

The ladies and men's major leagues will not start until September and probably will occupy the Friday night spot.

The managers said that there may be openings for teams or individuals and that those interested in participating may leave their names and addresses for call.

EDITORS FIGHT SOCIALIZED MEDICINE

Last spring, the National Editorial Association held a convention in New York. A resolution was offered which read, in part: "Whereas we believe that an outstanding contribution, during the past year, to the cause of individual freedom and the maintenance of our American way of life has been the nation-wide campaign by the American medical profession in behalf of freedom for both physicians and the cause of political freedom, therefore be it resolved that we do publicly commend the doctors of our country for their enlightened contribution to the American way of life. . . ."

This resolution was passed without a single dissenting vote.

It is to the credit of the newspaper fraternity that the great bulk of our papers, and most especially the smaller papers, have been leaders in the fight against socialized medicine and government-controlled or influenced medicine. This was done as a matter of principle—not because of any particular personal worry as to the welfare of the doctors. The typical editor knows full well that socialized medicine would be a long step toward the totally socialized state. And he knows that it would inevitably result in a sharp decline in the standards of medical service, especially in the all-important fields of research and preventive medicine. The experience of England has proven this.

Even the proponents of the compulsory government health insurance scheme admit that it has no chance to get through Congress now. But that should not lull the people into apathy. The bill will be brought back—again and again and again. And it need only pass once to start the destruction of free medicine as we know it. Any socialistic measure must be beaten every time, without fail. The fine old saying, "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," was never more valid than at present.

THE LOW DOWN FROM HICKORY GROVE

I barge in on any subject and the question for airing today, is—"If the U. S. A. is ever to be licked who will do same." And from my research it will not be the Soviet that will administer a haymaker—not anyway, if we finally heave overboard our suckerish mode of dealing with the other lands of the earth, and also heave overboard the crippling of our own citizens via eliminating any good reason for their practice of thrift or for exercising any initiative.

We been worn to a frazzle by Government experiments and security preachments. And under cover of all the wispy complicated promises and exhorting, the crafty undermining work of reducing our U. S. A. to the ranks goes on, like the dark nibbling of the termites on the foundation timbers of your domicile.

We are 'way, 'way down the road to final and complete Socialism—some yet quite indistinct and hazy, not right under our nose. We don't pay too much heed to what is cooking in some far away State or place. Also we can't make ourselves believe that our boss-men would cross us up—toss our American system overboard—give us the old heave-ho into a Europe type forlorn Government.

Putting 2 and 2 together—if we are licked, ever—termites and Socialism will turn the trick. Woe is us, if we keep on snoozin'.

Yours with the low down,
JO SERRA

Wrestling

George Dusette, the Boston Strong Boy, who has been scoring victories since his arrival in the mid-west, takes on the toughest foe of his career when he meets The Mighty Atlas next Friday night in the Lake County Stadium in Round Lake Park, Illinois.

Promoter Fred Kohler has signed Dusette to face The Mighty Atlas with a view of seeing how the easterner can fare in the heavy-weight division. The match this Friday is to a two out of three fall verdict with a sixty minute time limit.

Dusette is making a decisive decision whether to campaign actively in the heavyweights or to stay within the confines of the junior heavy-weight division. Normally, a 200 pounder, he can campaign in either class. Signing to meet The Mighty Atlas brings his full nelson into a clash with The Atlas Nelson, which is said to be even more deadly than the full nelson used by Dusette.

Prediction: Racket Of Fortune Telling Continues Forever

NEW YORK—In this uncertain world, about the only prediction that can be safely made about the future is that fortune telling will continue to be a profitable racket, probably to the end of time.

Head of the Bureau of Records and Criminal Information of a large metropolitan area estimates that hundreds of thousands of dollars are squandered annually in his city alone by persons who are determined to consult fortune tellers at any cost. This includes a steady stream of ladies interested in learning what the future holds for them, from the bottom of a teacup.

The racket is as old as recorded time and even older. All that has changed are the names by which those who ply it are called. In Biblical times and during the Middle Ages, they were known as seers, soothsayers, sorcerers, stargazers, prognosticators, super-naturalists, and diviners. Today, they pose as swamis, card and palm readers, crystal gazers, numerologists, astrologers, spiritualists, and telepathists or mind readers.

The ancient city of Babylon, mistress of witchcraft, was a hotbed of sorcerers, diviners, astrologers, stargazers, and monthly prognosticators. Stargazer-priests spent most of their time on temple ziggurats measuring the angles and movements of the stars with "astrolabes" while their assistants drew maps of the heavens from the "data" assembled. Sorcerers and diviners made prophecies from thunderstorms, earthquakes, eclipses and even by consulting the clay models of the livers of sheep.

Court supernaturalists were handsomely rewarded by the Egyptian Pharaohs, including King Khufu who reigned about 2775 B.C. Typical reward for a day's work was a thousand loaves, a hundred jugs of beer, an ox, and a hundred bunches of onions.

In Early Greece, the future was foretold in sacred places called oracles, which were handsomely supported by the people. Most famous of these was the oracle of Apollo at Delphi, where a frenzied priestess suspended in a cauldron hung from a tripod, answered the questions of worshippers.

United States Population Increase High for 1950

NEW YORK, N.Y.—The population of the United States was increasing at the highest rate in its history during the latter half of the year 1950.

The actual population increase for the year was 2,474,000, but increase was greatly accelerated during the months from July through December.

Increased birth rates are expected to continue for the next decade. By 1956 or 1957 it is estimated that the country will have a population of 165 million—the number predicted for the nation in 1990 by some 1930 statisticians.

Sergeant Psychologist Keeps His Troops Happy

WITH THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION IN KOREA—A rare combination—psychologist and mess sergeant—but Marine Master Sergeant John H. Riggs of Oceanside, California, meets the requirements.

The mere mention of food being dehydrated seems to have an annoying effect on Marines. But Sergeant Riggs mixes a little practical psychology with careful preparation and seldom a dissenting note is sounded about breakfasts served to the First battalion of the 7th Marines.

The solution: When Marines have fresh eggs on the morning menu, Sergeant Riggs saves the shells. Then, on succeeding days when the dehydrated eggs are served, the cooks merely scatter the real shells in the trash dump. Pronto, the troops leap to the conclusion that they are having fresh scrambled eggs.

Just strewing shells in sight is usually sufficient, but Sergeant Riggs admits, "Sometimes we sprinkle a few shells in the dehydrated eggs to be really sure of the effect."

Music Prof's Worm Hobby Pays Better Than Waltzes

TALLEQUAH, Okla.—Worms and waltzes could be said the hobbies as well as the livelihood of music professor Lloyd K. Herren.

Herren divides his time and attention between music classes at Northeastern State College and 30,000 hybrid red wigglers that he raises in his back yard. Together they net him a nice income, the worms probably providing the largest share.

The professor not only sells the worms in wholesale lots to fishermen, but also sells the enriched dirt he raises them in to farmers for fertilizer.

Herren says that his worms are valuable because they wiggle much longer than the garden variety when they have been placed on a hook and immersed in water.

"It's not the size of the worms that get the fish," he says. "It's the wiggle. Mine wiggle for 18 minutes under water."

Chrysler Ships 113,000 Cars Equipped With New Power Brakes

Chrysler has shipped its 113,000th car equipped with power brakes, reports J. A. O'Malley, Vice President and General Sales Manager, Chrysler Division, Chrysler Corporation.

"Power braking was developed by Chrysler before the war to provide extra safety for fast stops," O'Malley said. "It has proven very satisfactory in the hands of owners who have given the equipment a grueling test in millions of miles of highway driving."

The power brake unit is self-contained and utilizes intake manifold vacuum to multiply the braking power of the hydraulic brake system, O'Malley said.

"Chrysler power braking provides the driver with the proper 'feel' from the brake to enable him to determine the right amount of pressure to apply," O'Malley said. "For fast stops at high speeds it requires only one-third the pedal pressure required to stop a car not equipped with power brakes."

Power brakes are standard equipment on all Chrysler New Yorker, Imperial, and long-wheelbase Windsor models and they will be standard on the Saratoga models which are being introduced in August. They were first introduced as optional equipment in 1933 on Chrysler Imperial models.

The Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of pupils studying homemaking in either junior or senior high schools in the United States and its Territories. The National F. H. A. Leadership Training Conference in which Illinois participated was held from July 2-6 at Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan.

At the State Conference the delegates receive leadership training and information which they can bring back to better their local chapters. Instructional and entertaining discussion meetings and programs have been planned for the five-day camping Conference. Major responsibility for all activities is in the hands of student committees, but 30 homemaking teachers and three college students are counselors.

Rat Population East Of Main Street Large Lions Club Complains

The rat population east of Main st. is too great the Lions club through its secretary Louis A. Biel informed the village board Tuesday night, asking that the nuisance be eliminated.

The club said that from the standpoint of health and conservation a campaign should be started to get rid of the rats.

"Our place is in that area, do we have them?" asked Trustee Edmund Vos, lumber dealer, of Trustee George F. Garland, a neighboring business man.

Garland nodded in the affirmative.

Trustee Arthur M. Hawkins said that a company that makes warfarin, latest and best rat poison, will superintend any concerted action to get rid of the rodents, and he was instructed to get in touch with the company and arrange the campaign.

Ten dollars worth of warfarin is enough to get rid of all of the rats in the area," he said.

"I'll underwrite the cost if that's all it is," commented Vos.

Lakeland Players Attend Summer Productions; To Start Rehearsals in Sept.

The members of Lakeland Players are enjoying monthly social meetings during the summer. Mrs. Jack Steiber has planned two very successful meetings. The group is trying to combine recreation with learning by attending summer theaters and semi-professional productions in this area. In June they attended Chevy Chase theater and in August another "Little theater" outing is arranged. For the social meeting of July, a night swimming party and roast brought all the members together at Sherwood Park. During the summer season most of the Players are too busy to rehearse for a production of its own.

In September Lakeland Players will start rehearsal on "Dear Ruth" to be produced this fall in Antioch. A professional director will be hired to aid with all of the departments of production.

Lakeland Players organization is always anxious to include new members in the group, either in the acting or production departments of local talent plays. If you are interested in joining this organization, please call Mr. Ray Breuer, Antioch 532-J-2, to learn about membership.

Called to Paddock Lake

The Antioch Rescue squad called to Paddock lake yesterday by word that a 7-year-old boy was struck by an automobile and hurt, found upon its arrival that the youngster was unhurt but that the driver of the car, another youth, was suffering from nervousness so badly that they had to give him first aid treatment. The names of the boys were not obtained.

Eyesight Difference

Persons who have had the crystalline lens of the eye removed, because of cataract can see by light of wavelengths shorter than those which normal eyes can detect. Violet light, with waves about 1/70,000th of an inch in length, are the shortest most of us can see, though the retina—the sensitive "film" of the eye—is able to respond to shorter waves in the near ultraviolet region. These, however, are stopped by the crystalline lens. When the lens is removed these waves can reach the retina and the sensation produced is that of deep blue light.

The Lake County Federation of Women's clubs will hold their Annual Summer Frolic on Tuesday, August 21 at the Fox Lake Golf Club. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 followed by cards and music. Members from Antioch wishing to attend should make reservations with Mrs. Donald Stowe by August 15.

Mrs. H. B. Gaston of 654 Main St., and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Behler of Woodstock, went to Carmi, Ill. Saturday to be with their sister, Mrs. Dorothy Wallace, who has been seriously ill.

SHORT STORY

Bewildered Boy

By Willard Owen Persing

MY HANDS came up shoulder high. I didn't think the kid would use the gun intentionally, but scared and cold as he was his hand shook so much that I was more than a little worried. I wasn't going to startle him into waking any of the townspeople. They would find out plenty soon enough that I had been caught flat-footed by this teen-age bad man.

Otto was standing behind the counter, his hands resting easily on its scarred top. I couldn't figure it, but he was half smiling at the wild-eyed, boyish face that was half covered with a dirty white handkerchief.

"Sure, son," Otto was saying. "I'll give you the money, after I fix you a bite to eat."

The kid's eyes lit up for a moment, then he frowned and said, "You're trying to trick me into taking off the mask."

Otto shook his head slowly. "I'll put some sandwiches in a sack so you can take them with you." He turned his back on the kid and went to work at the sandwich board.

They seemed to have forgotten me, so I started edging around behind the youngster. I figured that was why Otto was smiling, but I had moved only a few inches when he stopped me.

"Take it easy, Joe, you're apt to ruin his appetite."

At these words from Otto, the kid spun around. I was staring at Otto, trying to figure out what in the world he had in mind. There wasn't any writing on the back of Otto's neck, and it was too deep for me, so I hooked a stool with my toe and pulled it out where I could sit down and still see what was going on.

Otto turned around with a hamburger in his hand. He reached across the counter and handed it to me. "Maybe this will keep you out of mischief for a while," he said, grinning at my bewilderment.

After all, he was the one getting robbed, so I decided I might as well go along with whatever he was trying to do. All I stood to lose was maybe my job.

"This the first time you've tried this?" Otto was asking the kid.

The kid's head nodded quickly, then he frowned and said, "What difference does it make? Hurry up with those hamburgers."

I was checking the kid's description again to see if there was anything I had missed. He had brown eyes and was waving a Luger pistol at us. His hair, if any, was hidden under an old cap pulled down over his ears. I was still trying to figure out how much slack there was in the bulky overalls when Otto dumped the cash drawer out on top of the counter.

He counted the money into a paper sack and placed it a couple of feet from the sack of hamburgers. "Thirty dollars," he said to the kid, "not much pay for the chance you're taking."

The kid reached out and scooped the two sacks together, using both hands. His right hand with the

"This is the first time you've tried this?" Otto was asking the kid with the dirty handkerchief over his face.

Luger came to rest a few inches from Otto's stomach. Otto slammed a huge hand down over the kid's hand and gun, clamping them to the counter.

I started to yell at Otto, if that gun went off, he wouldn't have a chance.

"Take it easy, both of you," he told me and the squirming kid. "That gun isn't loaded." To me he said, "I'm surprised you couldn't tell by looking at the extractor."

I didn't have an answer for that.

"That thirty dollars is your next two weeks' wages," Otto told the kid, "and you can have all you want to eat." He slipped the gun out of the kid's fist and placed it out of sight under the counter.

The kid was still scared. "Aren't you going to tell the cops?"

Otto grinned and pointed at me. "That's them, son."

The kid paled and wilted. That took all the fight out of him.

I stared at the kid for a minute, then stood up and headed for the door. "Time to make my rounds," I said. "Otto, you should hire some young fellow to help out in here, you're getting too old to do it all yourself."

May we suggest a Sitting?

NO doubt about it—you'll make a mighty handsome picture in a strapping new '51 Buick.

But it isn't the way you look, but the way you feel that's really important.

We'd like you to discover a Buick's ease and comfort, a Buick's power and performance, a Buick's steadiness and control—just to see if maybe you have been missing a travel treat.

We'd like you to discover what a valve-in-head engine, as Buick builds it—gingered with Fireball combustion—can mean in pulse-pounding thrill and in big miles-per-gallon figures.

We'd like you to learn what coil springs on all four wheels—not just in front—can do in the matter of smoothing a rough road and keeping you on an ever-level keel.

We'd like you to see what generous roadweight and a rigid torque-tube mean in solid steadiness of ride—what Dynaflo Drive* does for you in downright comfort and convenience—what a breeze it is to handle so big and roomy and impressive a car.

Spending Habits In Marked Shift From Pre-Korea

WASHINGTON — The American consumer's "appetite" for various goods and services appears to have experienced a striking shift since the war as compared with prewar years, according to a study of personal consumption expenditures by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

In general, there has been a greater concentration of the consumer spending dollar on durable goods and on food at the expense of some of the nondurable goods and the service sectors of the economy. This trend was evident well before the Korean impact on the economy, even though in some areas intensified by that development.

True, all classifications of goods and services have experienced a marked increase in dollar sales in the last decade, accompanying the rise to total personal consumption expenditures from $72.1 billions in 1940 to an annual rate of $195.8 billions in the fourth quarter of 1950, a 172 per cent increase. However, durable goods and the food classification have shown a substantially greater percentage gain than this, while the other classifications have lagged.

Boom in Durable Goods

The greater-than-normal concentration on durable goods purchases, led by automobiles, was particularly pronounced in the last half of 1950. As a result, purchases of automobiles and parts in the fourth quarter of 1950 were at an annual rate of nearly $13 billions, or almost five times the $2.7 billions of such expenditures in 1940, and at the same time were equivalent to 6.5 per cent of all personal consumption expenditures in that period compared with 3.7 per cent in 1940.

The second biggest percentage gain was shown by furniture and household equipment where consumer expenditures rose from $3.8 billions in 1940 to an annual rate of $13.1 billions in the fourth quarter of 1950, a rise of 245 per cent. The entire durable goods classification hit an annual spending rate of $30.0 billions in the fourth quarter of 1950, nearly four times the $7.9 billion total of 1940, with its proportion of total personal consumption expenditures rising from 11 per cent to 15.3 per cent in the period.

Food Expenditures Rise

Food expenditures have risen to a level considerably above their prewar relationship to income.

Total expenditures for food and alcoholic beverages, which are classified together in the Department of Commerce analysis, rose from $20.7 billions in 1940 to an annual rate of $62.1 billions in the fourth quarter of last year, an increase of exactly 200 per cent. The rest of the nondurable goods section showed an expenditure increase from $16.9 billions to $42.2 billions in this period, a rise of 150 per cent. For services, total expenditures increased from $26.6 billions to $61.5 billions for the period, a rise of about 130 per cent.

Hoppy's Sidekick Now Star Of Big Television Program

NEW YORK, N.Y.—Gabby Hayes, the familiar sidekick to such famous stars of the west as Hopalong Cassidy, Gene Autry and Roy Rogers for many years, has finally branched out on his own, and bids fair to rival them all for popularity.

Gabby, cast in the role of the comic companion for the dashing Westerners, has deserted Hollywood for a show of his own on television. On his popular NBC video offering Sunday afternoon the bearded old character tells stories to two youngsters and also introduces stories in American history that are dramatized by live actors.

Although his business address is different, Gabby's appearance remains the same. He still wears the heavy collection of facial sage brush familiar to kids everywhere. During performances, he takes out his upper bridge to stay in part with his characterization, which has become almost authentic. Only 68, he has been doing the "old coot" act in show business since 1910.

A reported salary of $125,000 lured Gabby away from the wild west.

Pianist Finds Arrangements Fine—But Something Wrong

NEW YORK—Pianist Alexander Brailowsky was once scheduled to play a concert in a small South American city, where no other concert artist had ever appeared. The virtuoso was fearful, lest the auditorium manager, certainly of no experience, would bungle the arrangements. However, the moment he stepped on the stage, his fears left him. The hall was packed.

The audience greeted him wildly and he was forced to take one bow after another. Finally the din ceased and he turned to take his seat at the piano. With lifted coat tails, he stopped aghast at the discovery that there was no piano on stage!

Frantic efforts were made to locate that one item forgotten by the auditorium manager, but none was found and the concert was called off.

SHORT STORY

A Dull Fellow

By Richard H. Wilkinson

"IT WAS PROBABLY suicide," I said, looking around the cabin. "Why?" Capt. Rhodes asked. I nodded toward the walls. At least a half dozen photographs of Arthur Kimball hung there.

3 Minute Fiction

decorate his cabin on a two weeks' cruise, must have been vain about other things.

"You mean he'd probably suffered financial reverses or something, and was too proud to face the facts, so he shot himself?" "That's about it," I nodded, pleased that the captain should give so much consideration to my theory. A very dull fellow this Capt. Rhodes.

The captain looked down at the lifeless body of Arthur Kimball. He had apparently been sitting at his desk, writing. There was a bullet wound in his temple. An automatic was clutched in the fingers of his right hand.

The captain looked at the pictures.

"I'm probably right, don't you think, Captain?" I said.

Captain Rhodes grunted. "No," he said, "I don't." He turned abruptly and went out.

Well, this only confirmed my ideas about the Captain's stupidity. To me the thing was dead open and shut.

The first mate, a tall, rugged individual named Brooks, told me to go to my quarters and stay there until I was called.

IT WASN'T UNTIL evening that the mate summoned me. I followed him down the corridor to Arthur Kimball's cabin. Captain Rhodes was there and several other men in uniform, and a strange man and woman.

"That was a very logical theory you advanced," the captain said, looking at me. "But we've proven it to be dead wrong."

"Wrong?" I said.

"Mr. Kimball was murdered!"

I didn't say anything. The captain was not only a dull fellow, but now he was revealing a tendency toward dramatics.

"As soon," went on the captain, "as I decided that Mr. Kimball was murdered, I began to look for someone who knew him before he sailed. This wasn't an easy job. Still, I figured that someone had engaged passage on the same boat with the idea of murdering him. That someone, I reasoned, would have taken a cabin as near to his as possible. So we began inquiring into the careers of all the cabin occupants along this corridor. The only two people whom we discovered who might have known Kimball are Mr. and Mrs. John Cole, these people here."

The captain glanced toward the strange couple.

"But," he continued, "they have conclusively proven that they were in the main salon at the time the murder was committed."

"How did they know when the murder was committed?" I asked importantly.

"I told them," Capt. Rhodes said.

"So I continued my hunt, and presently I discovered there was only one other person on board who knew Kimball, I discovered that this man had suffered financial losses through Kimball's activities."

"And who?" I asked quietly, "is this man?"

"You," said Capt. Rhodes.

It was a remote possibility, and I had not believed it would occur but nevertheless I was prepared.

Capt. Rhodes was prepared too. That's why the uniformed men were present. One of them had sidled in behind me, and as I sprang I landed in his arms.

The captain grunted. "If," he remarked dryly, "you ever have occasion to plan another murder, consider the details." He pointed to one of the pictures of Arthur Kimball. It was the picture in which Kimball was seated at his desk writing. "Note," said the captain, "that Mr. Kimball is holding his pen in his left hand, as he is the riding crop and polo mallet in the other pictures. He must have been left handed, yet you placed the murder gun in his right hand."

A dull fellow, the captain.

Near Record Low

While American families borrowed half a billion dollars on their life insurance policies during 1950, the ratio of outstanding loans to loanable funds at year-end was very near the record low which has held for four years, the Institute of Life Insurance reports.

A new submarine valley, possibly caused by an earthquake, has appeared off the coast of Southern California. It was reported by Dr. Francis P. Shepard, professor of submarine geology at the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography.

What's Under Chrome?
Tests have demonstrated that chromium-plated steel bright work will retain its decorative value over a longer period of use if the plate includes a liberal thickness of nickel, deposited either directly on the steel or over a copper undercoat. The nickel thickness is the important factor.

Antioch Battles

Antioch jumped off to a two run lead on single tallies in the first and second innings. In the first Palenski and D. Scott singled. Palenski scored when Crandell grounded to Jahns whose throw to the plate was too late to get Palenski. In the second Ray Scott walked moved to third on Bushings double and scored on Haviland's single.

In the fourth Wilmot tied the score as Molinaro tripled and scored on a passed ball by Olsen. Richards singled moved to second on a sacrifice and scored the tying marker on a single by Brehm.

In the fifth Antioch regained its two run lead as Palenski hit a line drive homer over the center fielder's head. D. Scott followed with a triple to right and scored on Crandall's fly to center.

Wilmot came right back in their half of the fifth to tie the score. Richter led off with a single to left, Schnurr popped to Wells. Haase hit into a force play as Richter was nailed at third. Molinaro walked. Richards then hit a fly ball to right which D. Scott couldn't quite manage. It went for a triple, Haase and Molinaro scoring to make the score 4-4.

Wilmot took the lead in the sixth when Wally Skora tripled and scored on Brehm's fly to Crandall. Antioch tied the score in the seventh when D. Scott tripled and then stole home.

In their half of the seventh Wilmot won the game with a two run blast. The first was a homer by Richards and the second resulted from a single by "Meatball" Jahns and a double by A. Skora.

In the ninth Antioch had the tying runs on base but D. Scott hit into a forced play to end the game.

Next Sunday Antioch will play host to the Model Tavern aggregation of Kenosha, the two teams have met once this year, Kenosha taking a tight 5-1 game. If the V. F. W. continues its hitting it should even up the series. Game time is 2:00 P. M., C. D. T. Antioch (5) basis that the number of taverns be limited to one for every 300 persons. The fee previously had been $400 and before that $300.

The grocery store request poses a different problem. There is no provision in the ordinance for the sale of beer only by package. A package license permit such as held by Pickus and the A and P stores, calls for the sale of any kind of liquor. Another type of license permits the sale of beer only on the premises.

The bowling alley proprietors said they would cater only to bowlers during the afternoon and evening and would close after bowling ends and not remain open as long as the taverns.

Babe Ruth Memorial
Program to be Given
Over Radio August 16

Babe Ruth's mighty bat that smashed a record of 60 home runs in 1927 and made him the idol of America, is still slugging away for the kids and the people that he loved.

This is the atmosphere that surrounds a memorial tribute scheduled for next week which will pay homage to the king of swat and raise funds for underprivileged children and to fight cancer, the disease that killed the Babe three years ago on August 16th.

Present indications are that many Lake County people will be listening to the Babe Ruth memorial radio program or watching the television show on the third anniversary of his death.

Mrs. Donald P. Wells, chairman of the Lake County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, and chairman of the Babe Ruth Memorial program here, said reports from the Babe Ruth Foundation headquarters in New York indicated that many from this area had already sent in questions to Stump the baseball experts during the television and radio quiz shows. "There is still time to participate," she said, "questions received right up to broadcast time will be considered."

Mrs. Wells asked that questions on baseball be mailed to Babe Ruth, Box 3, Madison Square Station, New York 10, N. Y. Those who wish to support the foundation's work are asked to send along a contribution with their questions.

Sixty per cent of the funds received will be turned over to the American Cancer Society and the other forty per cent will be used for projects to aid underprivileged children. The A. C. S. will distribute its share of funds among the various divisions. The Illinois Division will be credited with contributions made from Lake County.

Auto Crash Destroys
Warriner Area Archway

The archway at the Warriner subdivision on State Line rd. was a wreck Sunday after it was struck by a car driven by Stanley Ploskonka of 1908 W. Cullerton st., Chicago.

Ploskonka with two companions was said to have gone to sleep while driving west to Lake Catherine and failed to make the turn at the Warriner subdivision. The car also failed to clear the archway.

No one was hurt and the car was but little damaged. It was held at a local garage, however, until the owner arranges payment for the damage done to the archway.

Have you noticed that chickens generally are plumper, meatier than they were a few years ago? The principal reason for this is the "Chicken-of-Tomorrow" breeding program, sponsored by A&P with the cooperation of the poultry industry. The six-year program has resulted in chickens that mature when they are younger and more tender, and have more meat in relation to bone. Why don't you try the superior chickens at your A&P and let us know what you think of them? Please write:
